THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 17, 1884.

THE CANT OF PARTISANSHIP.

"The Iroquois" is a club composed of rich democrats of Chicago, who take upon themselves the control and management of the party's affairs in "the west." The club gives annual banquets, to which eminent members of the party from the east are usually invited; yet as they are expected to make speeches, and do not want to commit themselves, they seldom attend. In most cases they send platitudinous letters, as Tilden and Bayard have done on the present occasion, leaving the speech-making to the local representatives of the swallow-tail democracy of the western metropolis. Our dispatches have given the letters of these gentlemen in full. It might be supposed that we should have from them, if from any quarter, an oracular and impressive statement of the principles and policy of the democratic party; yet from their letters we learn no more than that democrats want to obtain possession of the government and get into office, and don't want to discuss any question of policy or politics till the offices shall have been first obtained, lest disagreements might arise by which the main object could be defeated. Therefore, neither Mr. Tilden nor Mr. Bayard enters into details of democratic policy. Each contents himself with saying that the republicans ought to be turned out, and neither gives any better reason why the democrats ought to come in than the stale platitude that the democratic party is the sole hope and refuge of the country, the only agency through which it can be rescued from corruption and misgovernment.

Mr. Tilden says: "The democratic party originated in a resistance by the more advanced patriots of the revolution to the efforts which were made to change the character of our government by a false construction of the constitution, impressing on the new system a monarchical basis. Jefferson's election in 1800 rescued our free institutions from the peril which surrounded them, and secured sixty years of administration mainly in harmony with their design and true character." This is very old twaddle. There is no future for the democratic party so long as the effort continues to make such stuff its inspiration. The logic of events, the severe lessons of history, have demonstrated the fact that Jefferson's principles, instead of giving peace and prosperity to the country, have been the source of its greatest disorders, including the civil war. It was exclusively on Jefferson's principles that the rebellion attempted to justify itself. It proposed no other justification. And Jefferson, the partisan demagogue, when the inevitable result of his principles was predicted, attempted to answer by saying that his opponents were "endeavoring to impress on the government a monarchical character." This accusation included Washington, Patrick Henry, and all the best patriots of the revolution, who warned the country as impressively as they could against Jefferson's principles. The result was what they predicted. The country has had enough of the principles of Jefferson, which can no more be restored as the basis of interpretation of the nature and powers of our government than Cæsar's edicts can be restored at Rome. And the democratic party—if it cannot recognize this—if it cannot move on, is hopelessly dead. Its condition during the last twenty-five years ought to be lesson enough on the futility of the effort to derive vitality from the grave.

Mr. Tilden also says: "The government (in the hands of the republican party) instead of standing as an impartial arbiter amid the conflicts of maturing opinion and contending interests has itself descended into the arena equipped with all the weapons of partisanship." Again: "No reform of administration is possible so long as the government is directed by a party which is under the dominion of false doctrines and animated by enormous pecuniary interests and the perpetuation of existing abuses." Yet we are not left without hope; for the eminent reformer who tried to consummate the electoral fraud in Oregon—skinning his eyeballs with pious glances upward—exclaims: "I have such faith in the benignant providence which has presided over the destiny of our country in every great trial hitherto, that I do not despair of our ultimate deliverance, though I can no longer aspire to be one of the leaders in this great work. I bid those upon whom the august mission may fall God speed."

What is all this but a spirit of partisanship of the most paltry kind? Nothing can be more utterly foolish or absurd than a pretense that the triumph of one party or the other is the sole hope of the country. Mr. Tilden's letter is the very drivel of partisan cant, made more lamentable by the professed senility of its author. Why should men claim respect for themselves or their utterances when they say at a time like this that a great danger impends over the country, which can be averted only by electing the candidate of this party or that party to the presidency? Nobody believes these clap traps. Furthermore, the fact is that if the democratic party should carry the presidential election it would have neither the ability nor the disposition to amend any of the evils which form the subject of Mr. Tilden's jeremiad. Its members would rush for the offices with the greed of partisans who have long been kept out, and would get them; the government in their hands, "instead of standing as an impartial arbiter amid the conflicts of maturing opinion and contending interests," would "descend into the arena equipped with all the weapons of partisan strife"—in other words, the democratic party, if it gets possession of the government, will use the whole power of the government to perpetuate its own ascendency, and will use it even more unscrupulously than the republicans have done, because the maxim "to the victors belong the spoils" is and has ever been a central idea of that party, and against it the party has no protesting element. The pretense of reform in these particulars from the democratic party is ludicrous beyond expression. The claim that we should have an end of partisan influence and corrupt methods in the administration of the government by bringing the democratic party into power—and this is the idea of Mr. Tilden's letter—is not convincing. The country could stand a democratic administration, undoubtedly. But it is not so foolish as to suppose that it would get, through that party, an ideal civil service or a non-partisan administration. In the republican party there is much misdoing; in any party that controls the government there will always be. Thus, when we look back to the last democratic national administration—that of Buchanan—or take note of the government of the city of New York, where democratic ascendency bears perennial fruit, or remember what the government of Oregon was during the Grover-Chadwick administration, we are not impressed with a sense of the wisdom of relying on that party as the sure agent of political perfection.

The Albany Journal under its new management seems determined to support the right man if possible. In one column it says: "Frankly we say that the nomination of Senator Edmunds seems to commend itself at this time most strongly to the republican party." In another column it says: "No good can come to the party by such an editorial as the New York Times publishes to-day declaring that President Arthur cannot carry this state. It is as untimely as Mr. Curtis' statement in Harper's Weekly that Mr. Blaine cannot carry New York, and we might add, in our humble opinion, as untrue."

The nomination of Grant's celebrated military secretary, O. E. Babcock, for lieutenant-colonel of engineers, has called out from John McDonald a letter reviewing Babcock's connection with the whisky scandals.

A REMARKABLE SCENE.

Now comes Mr. William Watkinds playing an extraordinary part, even for him. To stop the appointment of a successor he throws discredit on his own appointment and furnishes the strongest reason yet produced why he should be removed. For if it be true, as he says, that money was paid to the mayor for his appointment to the office of chief of police, then of course he ought to be ousted at once. If the appointment was bought it was bought with his privity or without it. If with it, he ought to be in the penitentiary; if without it, he would, if he possessed the slightest sense of honor, resign. On any view of the case what the common council ought to have done, on Watkinds' own statement, was to confirm his successor at once. The information on his part is that he holds the office by purchase. Certainly then he should hold it no longer. The transaction with which Mr. Hirsch's name is connected was simply this: Some time after Watkinds was appointed Hirsch loaned $[illegible] upon a note secured by Watkinds, which note has since been paid in full, principal and interest. Hirsch says that there was not the slightest connection between this loan and Watkinds' appointment. He had not asked that Watkinds be appointed, nor had he anything whatever to do with the appointment. The fact that the money has been paid and the note given up shows that it was an ordinary business transaction. It does not appear, however, that Watkinds pretends it was anything more. If money so borrowed was used to replace money that had been stolen from the treasury to secure Watkinds' appointment, the lender was not to blame for it. Yet it is by no means established upon the word of Besser and Watkinds, that the mayor was paid to make the appointment. Had he been paid he would hardly have attempted to remove Watkinds from the office. But it is certain that upon the statement which the latter has made he ought to be removed at once. It is a public disgrace for a man to hold an office after he has made such a statement concerning the manner of its obtainment. The thing which Watkinds has fully succeeded in doing is to furnish overwhelming reasons why he ought to "go." If he is insensible to the disgrace the city cannot be. It is a dirty bird that fouls its own nest.

THE BUSINESS MEN.

Two or three New York papers have devoted considerable space to interviews with leading bankers, merchants and business men respecting the presidency. The result shows that the "business men" are highly pleased with Mr. Arthur's conservative administration. The Commercial-Advertiser says that "President Arthur has shown himself in all financial matters as safe an executive officer as the country has ever had. He has maintained with admirable tact and dignity, avoiding alike pretension and familiarity, the social and diplomatic requirements of his high office." The Mail and Express, an independent paper, is still more cordial toward the president. "Every intelligent New Yorker," it says, "knows that the great majority of the business men of this city have been deeply impressed by the excellent administration of the government by President Arthur. It is believed by very astute politicians of both parties that as against almost any of the prominent democratic candidates Arthur would get a large proportion of the votes of the democratic merchants, bankers and professional men of this city."

We have no doubt of the correctness of these views. Mr. Arthur has been a good executive. No administration has been more free from scandal than his since the government was formed. While he has had no policy to force upon the country, his recommendations to congress in regard to revenue, and civil service reform, regulation of interstate commerce, and other live questions have shown that he is in advance of his party in these measures and that his views are more in sympathy with the people than those of either party taken as a whole, and as embodied in their platforms. His appointments have been excellent, and the general course of his administration, like that of President Hayes, has been conservative and beneficial to the country. The business men estimate an administration solely by its effects upon business. They endorsed the administration of President Hayes and helped to elect his republican successor because the country had prospered under his safe rule, and they are satisfied with Mr. Arthur for the same reasons. In that instance there were no issues in which the people generally could not sympathize with the business men. But now it is different. The people of New York are not working with the business men for the renomination of President Arthur. There are considerations which take a deep hold upon the people, for which business men care almost nothing. The question of boss rule for example is one in which the business men take at most only an indifferent interest. Their view of politics is wholly mercenary. So long as they are able to make money they do not care who runs the party, or how intolerable the machine may be to men of true public spirit, who desire to exert the influence and control to which their intelligence and unselfish interest in public affairs entitle them to exercise. And if the choice of an administration were left to business men alone, a strong man would be elected and they would not have any scruples in regard to the methods by which he might gain or keep his power.

This is the reason why the business men of New York city do not represent the people of the state, and it is a very hopeful sign that they do not. It is not enough that Mr. Arthur should be a wise and steady executive. So long as the impression prevails that he is exercising the vast power of his official station to secure the continuance of his present place at the head of the government, the people who resist this attempt are better patriots than the business men "who care for none of those things." The defeat of Judge Folger for governor of New York was owing to the determination of the people not to be dictated to in their local conventions and elections by the federal power, and the failing support of Mr. Arthur is now due to the same cause. It is this spirit existing among the people who are not absorbed in business so exclusively that they cannot take an unselfish interest in politics, that is the real conservative force in a popular government; and while we should on general principles, looking at it simply as an administration, and apart from its connection with the politics of the different states, be entirely willing to have Mr. Arthur hold the presidency another term, we are heartily in sympathy with those who carry their resentment to the interference of his "bosses" in the choice of delegates to the nominating convention to the point of most effective opposition to his renomination. The people meant something by their warfare against the bosses two years ago. It was more of a clap than the bosses and the would-be bosses in all the states have fully appreciated.

Senator Jessup of Yamhill county has resigned. He is now in Iowa. The resignation was forwarded to the governor on the 11th inst.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

A Few Moments of Most Intense Excitement Last Evening.

SAM PARRISH NOMINATED CHIEF OF POLICE

The Present Incumbent Declares that his Official Position was Bought and the Money Paid for It

There was much expectancy among [illegible] last evening as to what would be done [illegible] regular [illegible] meeting of the city council. It was rumored that the mayor would appoint Sam Parrish as chief of police vice W. H. Watkinds removed for [illegible] and that a majority would confirm [illegible] of the council. [illegible] was occupied some time before the mayor or any of the members appeared. There was considerable talking [illegible] and in the majority were Councilmen [illegible] and Gerdes and [illegible] after was heard to remark [illegible] just [illegible] in reading [illegible] than [illegible] in answer to a question from Gerdes as to what he [illegible] of Watkinds pretended indifference [illegible] seare Watkinds is having [illegible] that he held the [illegible] get him to sign an agreement to the effect that [illegible] the old standard of $50 per annum [illegible] conversation was for the purpose of [illegible] but was [illegible] the latter [illegible] by any such braggadocio. At this point the mayor [illegible] and the conference broke up. Councilman Haly buttonholed the mayor in the auditor's office and talked earnestly to him for a few minutes emphasizing what [illegible] his head. Then all the council [illegible] the [illegible] while Watkinds [illegible] the way and [illegible] customary [illegible] the mayor's way into the [illegible] which time Judge Adams went to the latter's [illegible]. It is sufficient to say that the [illegible] string [illegible] slush which came from Watkinds lips went [illegible] one of the mayor's ears and out at the other. He had appointed Watkinds at the request of [illegible] friends [illegible] found him to be a lamentable failure and now proposed to get rid of him

THE PROCEEDINGS

The council was called to order by the mayor at ten minutes to 8 o'clock. All the councilmen were present except Besser who is in attendance upon the democratic state convention at The Dalles. The alleged chief of police his knees trembling for the safety of his head took his seat at the right of the mayor as sergeant-at-arms.

The clerk proceeded to read the minutes of the last regular meeting, when Councilman Honeyman moved that they be considered read and approved.

Councilman Gerdes made the first move of what turned out to be a deliberate attempt to filibuster and objected whereupon the clerk continued the reading, which occupied twenty five minutes

COMMUNICATION FROM THE MAYOR

At the close of the reading of the minutes the mayor handed to the clerk a communication which was as follows

To the Members of the Common Council: I hereby appoint Samuel B Parrish chief of police vice W H Watkinds and ask his confirmation

J A CHAPMAN, Mayor

Councilman Haley was on his feet in an instant and said: I object. There are no charges to justify the same without which nothing of the kind can be done; secondly there is not a full council here to-night and I want every man who voted upon the confirmation of Watkinds to put himself upon record on his rejection now. I move to refer the communication to the committee on health and police

Councilman Gerdes seconded the motion

The ayes and nays being called, the mover and seconder of the motion to refer were the only ones who voted in the affirmative

Councilman Chittenden then moved to confirm

"Before that is done" said Watkinds jumping quickly to his feet and advancing almost in front of the mayor's desk "here is a note from L. Besser and W H Watkinds to Sol Hirsch, upon which $[illegible] was endorsed and which Mr Besser tells me was taken out of the city's money while I was absent in Texas and paid for my appointment and Mr Chapman received that money. [The reporter gives the exact words although they appear to have neither sense nor meaning.]

"It is false" said the mayor

"It is true and I can prove it" shouted Watkinds

The stillness in the council chamber was almost painful

Councilman Honeyman moved to postpone further consideration of the matter for the present

Watkinds again became excited and exclaimed: Mr Gerdes I wish you to read my protest

The latter however paid no attention to his [illegible] and Honeyman's motion carried

The clerk proceeded with the regular business reading another communication from the mayor appointing O H Smith as a special policeman to take the place of [illegible] the same having been agreed upon between the two; the nomination was confirmed

The following communications were then read and acted upon

WATKINDS STATEMENT

Watkinds was [illegible] in the evening [illegible] of the [illegible] He [illegible] the reporter [illegible] that [illegible] was [illegible] [illegible] of the mayor

What is [illegible] this note you spoke of in the [illegible]

Well I [illegible] the truth is [illegible] a [illegible] that [illegible] two days after I was appointed [illegible] of police [illegible] said he wanted $[illegible] I asked him what he wanted it for [illegible] said "Now you mind what I want it for. You just pay [illegible] to that note." This I would not do until I knew what the money was for. He [illegible] told me he had promised to pay Chapman $[illegible] for my appointment and he wanted the money to pay [illegible] I told him no I wouldn't do that. If I had to pay any money for my appointment I would resign. He told me that I [illegible] with the matter it was his [illegible] and his [illegible] and all I had to do was to keep still. So he got the money from Hirsch with my endorsement on the note, which money he says he paid to Chapman. Then when I was gone to Texas the note became due and Besser took the money out of the city's funds in my hands and paid the note

Did that leave a discrepancy in your accounts asked the reporter

"No sir not a [illegible]" was the reply "I have turned it in my salary and made it up—every cent of it"

The speaker was in high good humor and turned to speak with some one else on what he styled his victory

It might be remarked parenthetically that there is considerable discrepancy between the above statement and the actual facts. The note was for only $[illegible] and it is only two weeks ago that Watkinds himself paid the last installment upon it of $[illegible] and received the note in return

THE TIVOLI

Under the proprietorship of Walter Keyes the new Tivoli theater was thrown open last evening. The Chimes of Normandy was selected as the opening opera. The building was literally packed [illegible] overflowing even standing room commanding a premium. Nearly one half of the audience was composed of ladies the softer sex greatly predominating in the gallery. The whole interior of the building has been constructed on the principle of the Tivoli in San Francisco and seems well adapted [illegible] the purpose. Considering the extremely low price of admission the entertainment is well worthy of liberal patronage—that is judging from the performance of last evening. The leading role Serpolette was sustained by Miss Bessie Louise King, who is a stranger to this public. Her singing and acting were really excellent and warmly applauded. She was in excellent voice and her acting was bright and vivacious. Miss Louise Edgar essayed the somewhat ambitious character of Germaine. She sang and acted the part so well as to share the honors of the evening with Miss King. The remainder of the cast was quite good. Especially worthy of mention is Mr Louis Dammarch who appeared as Jean Grenicheux. Maurice Hagemann as Gaspard the miser and Edwin Stevens as Henri the Marquis. The orchestra was under the efficient and experienced leadership of J. M. Navoni. One of the most enjoyable features of the entertainment was the character dance of Miss [illegible]. Chimes of Normandy will be repeated until further notice with the full cast or [illegible] new scenery, costumes etc.

NEW COMERS

Immigrants here is the genuine business for you. The work of laying the foundation for a large manufacturing town in the midst of a fertile country has been going on for nearly a year at La Camas in Clarke county W T. Not on paper merely but in the ground with money. Vast dams have been constructed great engineering difficulties overcome and an immense water power improved at a cost which insures permanence. Manufacturing companies are being organized to use the power developed. Lumber mills are already in operation and work has been commenced by the Columbia River Paper Company on large paper mills. These will give employment to hundreds of men. Besides the business in sight from the expenditure of many thousands of dollars there is a large and fine agricultural country naturally tributary thereto. The town has not been advertised or boomed, and therefore while it has plenty of laboring men has comparatively no one to do its business. It needs a merchant, a druggist, a doctor, a real estate agent, a blacksmith, a barber, a harness maker, a tinsmith, a shoemaker, a livery stable—in fact there is the best possible location for any business man in the retail line

Harrigan Replies to Burke

In the report of the proceedings of the California legislature published in the Bulletin [illegible] first words the following reply to the charge of bribery made by [illegible] Burke against Harrigan [illegible]

Harrigan [illegible] a point of privilege said [illegible] In the papers [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] upon [illegible] charge will be extraordinary regardless of its origin because at the time it was made no vote had been taken upon any of the great [illegible] measures which serve as a pretext for the [illegible] against [illegible] the charge [illegible] men most remarkable [illegible] it is made by the professional agent of [illegible] bargainers who at [illegible] against the San Francisco senators is that at the regular session they cut off his accustomed commission on the sale of legislative votes at the price [illegible] their [illegible] regarding their duty keeping their pledges [illegible] maintaining their honor and driving him from their counsels and their confidence. It [illegible] because this professor of primary politics with whom the sale of votes at retail in ward meetings and at wholesale in conventions is the means [illegible] a livelihood who arrays himself against great interests and [illegible] with [illegible] unconcealed purposes of blackmail to whom principle is as unknown as [illegible] common virtues [illegible] whose crime is the [illegible] to be dishonorably his brokerage in bribery. Riot Between Catholics and Protestants—A General Uprising Threatened in Mexico—News Notes.

ENGLAND.

A FENIAN MANIFESTO.

LONDON, April 16.—Patrick Joyce, secretary of the fenian brotherhood, has issued a manifesto addressed to all Irishmen. He says: "The brotherhood has good cause for rejoicing at the discomfiture of John Bull. England has never before felt vengeance expiated with such crushing force. All honor to the inauguration of an entirely warfare by the brotherhood. We have convincing proof of the efficacy of science when handled by brave and intelligent men. We summon all to help us. We advise our brothers to persevere in the glorious war and we will live to witness free and regenerated Ireland. We are resolved to push the work with redoubled energy, and we recommend Prof. Mezeroff to all Irishmen as an exponent of the resources of civilization."

THE QUEEN'S JOURNEY TO DARMSTADT.

LONDON, April 16.—[Special.]—Queen Victoria and Princess Beatrice have started for Darmstadt. In addition to the safeguards previously announced, a line of signal men was stretched along the entire line of railroad from Windsor to Sheerness, so close together as to be plainly visible to each other, and with orders to maintain a continuous patrol, watching the track for obstructions and flagging the pilot engine and the royal train if necessary. The carriages immediately in front and in the rear of her majesty were filled with constables from Scotland Yard, and detectives stood by the engine drivers, one on each locomotive.

STANLEY'S INTENTIONS.

LONDON, April 16.—The Times says: Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, who was announced a few days ago to be coming to Europe on a long leave of absence, has resolved, before leaving Africa, to take up an entirely new ground, and solve a problem which will entitle him to the gratitude of geographers. He intends to reach from the Congo country one of the Egyptian stations in the Mombuttoo country, on the Willemekius river. This is the task that General Gordon was intending to attempt before he was diverted to Khartoum.

HARCOURT MAKES A SPEECH.

LONDON, April 16.—Harcourt, secretary of state for the home department, in a speech at Derby, said: "The government will dissolve parliament at its own time, not at the time of the conservatives. The government went into Egypt reluctantly, and would have retired but for events in the Soudan. England is quite empire enough. If we annex Egypt we are liable to perpetuate embroilment with other countries."

THE QUEEN'S THANKS.

LONDON, April 16.—The queen has forwarded a letter to the press thanking her subjects for sympathy with the royal family and the Duchess of Albany in their bereavement.

THE MACKAY-BENNETT CABLE.

LONDON, April 16.—The steamship Faraday cleared for Nova Scotia to-day. It carries the first installment of the Mackay and Bennett cable, to the amount of 1100 miles.

FRANCE.

CONFESSED HIS FAULT.

PARIS, April 16.—A Tonquin dispatch says: The viceroy of Canton has confessed his fault and begged to be punished. The empress as an act of grace, postponed judgment and instructed prince Li Hu to inquire into the viceroy's conduct. Meanwhile the viceroy will retain his office. Prince Chun, the emperor's father, will regulate important matters in the grand council of the empire until the emperor assumes the government.

THE ENEMY "TERRIFIED."

PARIS, April 16.—The following dispatch has been received from Gen. Millot at Tonquin: Our first brigade turned the enemy's position while the second cannonaded from the front. Our artillery terrified the enemy. The fall of water prevented most of the flotilla from giving assistance. Both soldiers and sailors behaved gallantly.

SHOT AT BY AN INJURED HUSBAND.

PARIS, April 16.—While Savary, an ex-deputy, was walking in a brasserie to-day with the wife of Lamy, the lady's husband stepped up and fired two shots at Savary, but did not hit him. Lamy accuses Savary of leading his wife astray. Savary was director of the bankrupt bank of France & Loire and Lamy was his clerk.

MUST RESPECT FOREIGN OPINION.

PARIS, April 16.—Prime Minister Ferry, in a speech at Perigueux to-day, said the republic must have regard for foreign opinion, especially the opinion of England and Italy.

AN AMERICAN YACHT WINS.

PARIS, April 16.—In the regatta at Nice the American yacht Gitana, owned by Weld, won the race for schooners of over thirty tons beating the English yacht Gladys, belonging to Collins.

COLOMBIER IN TROUBLE.

FRANCE FURNISHED THE DYNAMITE.

PARIS, April 16.—It is asserted that the dynamite used in the London outrages was procured from an authorized factory in France, and that £200 was paid for it.

CANADA

CATHOLIC AND PROTESTANT RIOT.

ST. JOHNS, Newfoundland, April 16.—The following special has just been received from Carbonear: On Sunday night, when the Protestants were returning from church, they were attacked by Roman Catholics with pickets and stones. One man named Squib was fatally wounded. Protestants then collected, armed with pickets, and dispersed the mob. Yesterday morning a man named Brennan fired a revolver at an Orangeman. He was arrested. A man named Hayden, now under arrest, shot at J. A. Jares, brother of the Orangeman murdered in the Harbor Grace riot, while standing at Hogan's door. These outrages were followed by a general turnout of Orangemen, all armed with guns and bayonets, who kept marching through the streets all night. The streets are deserted, save by the crowd in arms. The war ship Tenedos left last night for the scene of the disturbance.

THE QUEEN PETITIONED.

TORONTO, April 16.—The archbishop and the bishops of the province of Ontario petition the queen to protect the interests of her subjects from the rapacity of the Italian government in robbing the propaganda in Rome, in which the British subjects have large monetary interests.

LAND SLIDES AND HIGH WATER.

BRANTFORD, Ont., April 16.—Heavy land slides into the Grand river have occurred. The river is overflowing the flats and endangering the Lockhut bridge. Traffic is suspended.

MEXICO.

A GENERAL UPRISING.

EL PASO, Tex., April 16.—A dispatch from Fracascas, Mexico, seven hundred miles south, received here this afternoon, says there is trouble among the inhabitants, and a general uprising against American residents. After an attack upon the Mexican Central railroad the mob burned bridges and tore up the track for several miles. In Chihuahua the governor called out troops to prevent any demonstration. Travelers from the interior for several days have reported general uneasiness, and fears of rebellion among the inhabitants. It is impossible to learn particulars.

BOSTON, April 16.—News of the uprising and attack on the Mexican Central railroad depressed the securities of the company, bonds declining 1 per cent. President Nickerson has no information from the reported scene of the trouble, and regards the report as very much exaggerated or false. The president says there is no such place on the line as Fracascas.

SPAIN.

A WARNING TO THE UNITED STATES.

MADRID, April 16.—Valera, Spanish minister at Washington, has been instructed to make strong representations to the United States government against Cuban filibusters being allowed to organize more expeditions, and to intimate that the guilty persons, when caught, even if foreigners, are liable to death.

MADRID, April 16.—At a cabinet council yesterday the king was suffering from a violent attack of malaria. He at first opposed the presentation by Valera of a protest to the Washington government. Canovas de Castello, however, carried his point, and instructions were forward d to Valera. Immediately after the council broke up.

CHINA.

THE SITUATION IN TONQUIN.

LONDON, April 16.—Telegrams from Shanghai and Hong Kong make no mention of the seizure of Amoy. The report that the French fleet has occupied Amoy is discredited at London and Paris. The French government is undecided in regard to the amount of indemnity to claim from China. Reports from Shanghai say that in the new administration the peace party forms a strong element, and no decisive step toward war will be taken until it is known what terms Patenotre is empowered to offer. It is expected that Patenotre will reach Pekin about the end of June.

THE WAR IN THE SOUDAN.

A TERRIBLE PICTURE.

LONDON, April 16.—The Standard's correspondent at Cairo says there are 153 men, women and children of all ages in the infirmary at Tounah, living like beasts in indescribable filth and neglect. Among the inmates are several raving mad men, sometimes unchained. There are other inmates in every stage of the most loathsome disease. Two black men walk about entirely naked.

IRELAND.

PARNELL SPEAKS.

DUBLIN, April 16.—At a banquet at Drogheda this evening Parnell said the prospects of Ireland were very bright. Referring to the nationalization of land, he warned his hearers that the subject would cause difficulty, and possibly disunion.

DUBLIN, April 16.—At a meeting of the Irish national league to-day, Parnell, in his address, said the success of the league was evidenced by the flow of funds into the treasury, and by the large number of its branches, and that the national league would hand down as bright a record in history as the land league.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

IS THE MOST SUCCESSFUL PHYSICIAN ON the Pacific coast in the treatment of all Chronic and Difficult Diseases of the Sexual Organs.

He will guarantee to cure any form of disease of the generative organs, private disease, if the patient follows his advice and treatment.

He has no equal as an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the FOLLIES OF YOUTH, such as Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, or Loss of Perfect Vitality. Nearly two-thirds of all the chronic disorders spring either directly or indirectly from some disease of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by a majority of the Medical Profession.

Persons afflicted by any form of sexual disease or weakness often delay consulting the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty, until sometimes the disease becomes seated, the system broken down, and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to relieve them out of their miserable existence. Every thing strictly confidential under all circumstances. Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail, if they are curable, and if not, he will tell you so.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance, who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

Office: Nos. 72 and 134 Third street, corner of Alder, opposite Masonic Hall.

Office Hours: 10 to 12 A. M., 2 to 5 and 7 to 8 P. M.

CANCER.

The experience in the treatment of Cancer with Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) would seem to warrant us in saying that it will cure this much dreaded scourge. Persons so afflicted are invited to correspond with us.

I believe Swift's Specific has saved my life. I had virtually lost use of the upper part of my body and my arms from the poisonous effects of a large cancer on my neck, from which I had suffered for 20 years. S. S. S. has relieved me of all soreness, and the poison is being forced out of my system. I will soon be well.
W. R. ROBISON, Davisboro, Ga.

Two months ago my attention was called to the case of a woman afflicted with a cancer on her shoulder, at least 5 inches in circumference, angry, painful and giving the patient no rest day or night for 6 months. I obtained a supply of Swift's Specific for her. She has taken 5 bottles, and the ulcer is entirely healed up, only a very small scab remaining, and her health is better than for 5 years past; seems to be perfectly cured.
REV. JESSE H. CAMPBELL, Columbus, Ga.

I have seen remarkable results from use of Swift's Specific on a cancer. A young man near here has been afflicted 5 years with the most angry looking eating cancer I ever saw, and was nearly dead. The first bottle made a wonderful change, and after 5 bottles were taken, he is nearly or quite well. It is truly wonderful.
M. F. CRUMLEY, M. D., Oglethorpe, Ga.

UNDER LIP AND INSIDE OF CHEEK EATEN AWAY BY CANCER.

My father had an eating cancer for several years, which had eaten away his under lip and the inside of his cheek down to the bottom of his gums. We got some of Swift's Specific and gave him, and the effect has been wonderful, almost miraculous. The sores are all healed and he is perfectly well. Every one here said it was only a question of time about his death, and his cure has created the greatest excitement in the part of the country. I hope you will publish about my father's cure, and send me some circulars to give to my friends and the afflicted.
